SUPERVISORS REPORT

Supervisor Gary Ahle reported he received a response to our request of hosting the Illinois Secretary of State's Office Mobile Unit once again. They stated at this time, due to a shortage of manpower, they are unable to schedule an event at our facility. Ahle stated we would submit another request in approximately 6 (six) months.

Township Officials of Illinois Trustees Division is requesting assistance in nominating a Trustee for the Trustees' Division Award for Excellence in Public Service. The award will be announced at the Awards Breakfast on November 8, 2011. Nominating forms may be obtained in the Township Office.

Supervisor Ahle stated a donation of $1,000 (one thousand dollars) had been made from the rummage sale proceeds to aid in the Joplin relief efforts following the devastating tornado. After researching various organizations the donation was made to the Community Foundation of the Ozarks which distributes 100% (one hundred percent) of the funds directly to the victims without deducting any administrative costs. A letter was received thanking everyone for the contribution.
